

MBBS in Poland for Indian Students Fees, Eligibility & Complete Guide

Poland has become a popular destination for MBBS abroad to become a doctor. Indian students can choose Poland to get a globally recognised MBBS degree. Also, the affordable medical education attracts students from all around the world. The MBBS in Poland for Indian students fees is around USD 60,000 for the complete course. This makes Poland a cost-effective destination compared to many other countries and private institutions in India.

This post will give complete details about MBBS in Poland for Indian Students, including tuition fees, eligibility, and more.

MBBS in Poland for Indian Students

An MBBS in Poland is a six-year program, which includes one year of mandatory internship. This course is offered by some globally ranked medical universities, like Jagiellonian University, Medical University of Warsaw, etc. The World Health Organization, the National Medical Commission of India, and other medical bodies approved medical colleges in Poland. Indian students must have passed 10+2 with at least 75% in PCB subjects and qualify for the NEET exam for admission.

MBBS in Poland Fees 2025-26

Poland offers affordable medical education to Indian students. The MBBS fees in Poland vary between USD 10,000 to USD 16,000 and more per year. Mentioned below is the list of some popular medical universities with first year tuition fees:

- Medical University of Lodz - EUR
- Jagiellonian University - EUR 15 500
- Medical University of Warsaw - EUR 17 100
- Medical University of Gdańsk - PLN 62 000
- Poznan University of Medical Sciences - PLN 69 000

Eligibility Criteria for MBBS in Poland

Indian students who wish to study MBBS from Polish universities must meet the eligibility criteria. Applicants have to complete the academic qualifications, qualify for the NEET exam, and submit the necessary documents. Mentioned below are the general eligibility criteria for MBBS in Poland:

- Completed a 10+2 class with Physics, Chemistry, and Biology as main subjects.
- Secure at least 50% marks in 10+2 class.
- Indian students must qualify for the NEET exam.
- The minimum age requirement is usually 17 years for MBBS abroad.

Documents Required for Indian Students

Applicants have to submit all the documents to finish the admission application successfully. Mentioned below is the list of documents that Indian students required to study MBBS from Poland:

- 10th and 12th Mark Sheets
- NEET Scorecard
- Valid Passport
- Medical Fitness Certificate

- Passport-sized Photographs
- Letter of Acceptance from the university
- Bank statement

Top Medical Universities in Poland

Poland is the home to many globally ranked medical universities. They all offer quality medical education along with globally recognised MBBS degree. Check the following table for top 7 medical universities in Poland for Indian students:

| Top Medical Colleges in Poland             | QS World University Ranking by Medicine in 2025 |
|--------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| Jagiellonian University                    | 251-300                                         |
| Medical University of Warsaw               | 401-450                                         |
| University of Warsaw                       | 451-500                                         |
| Medical University of Gdańsk               | 601-650                                         |
| Poznan University of Medical Sciences      | 651-700                                         |
| Nicolaus Copernicus University             | 701-850                                         |
| University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn | 701-850                                         |

Conclusion

Pursuing an MBBS in Poland offers a perfect combination of affordable medical education with a globally recognised MBBS degree. Medical aspirants from all over the world chose to study in Poland due to its affordable medical education. The MBBS in Poland for Indian students fees is around USD 60,000 for the complete course. Applicants get admission easily by meeting the entry requirements and submitting the necessary documents.

Call to Action

Ready to study MBBS in Poland to become a doctor?

Connect with Education Vibes to get complete detail about the tuition fees, eligibility, and more about MBBS in Poland. Our experts will help you with the university selection, tuition fees, and visa application.

Contact us today and visit us at <https://educationvibes.in/>

