How To Screenshot On iPhone: Use Simple Tactics

You may have been using an iPhone for a long time or just started. Knowing how to screenshot on an iPhone is something many look for. If you do too, why not give some time to learn how to take it with the different models you have?

Why Is Taking Screenshots On iPhone Necessary?

A screenshot is the quickest way to keep things as a record. So, whatever is running on the screen, you can capture that by pressing the screenshot keys. Also, screenshotting is considered a convenient option when compared with alternatives. Thus, learn how to do it in the section below.

How To Screenshot On iPhone

We will discuss model-wise. Because the features are different, that's why the process may be slightly changed. Let's explore:

Phones with Face ID integration:

To screenshot on iPhones with Face ID, do the following:

- Press the side button and volume up together.
- Then release the buttons quickly.
- You've taken the screenshot.
- You can even edit or dismiss below.

Phones with Touch ID and side button:

- Press the home button and the side button at a time.
- Also, release both buttons quickly.
- There you see the screenshot preview at the bottom.

iPhones with Touch ID and Top button:

- Tap the top button on iPhone and home button together.
- Then, release both buttons at the same time.
- Your screenshot is taken, and you can see the screenshot preview as well.

How To Take Full-Page Screenshots In Safari

If you're using the Safari browser for an important task and want to keep things saved there, you can take the screenshots using the given steps:
- Just take a normal screenshot first.
- Click the preview option from the bottom section.
- Tap the 'Full Page' option.
- Crop the image.
- And save the PDF.

Concluding

Taking a screenshot on an iPhone is useful. And it's the easiest one. Depending on the iPhone model you're using, you can select the given steps and capture the screen for further references. We have outlined how to Screenshot On iPhone. Hope this helps you.